

The Justices Table

	Justices characterized in terms of someone's own.
The actor acts as ...	Commutative Justice	"Beyond-CJ"
		Distributive Justice	Estimative Justice
An Equal	(A1) Other's Own: Libertarian stuff (However, Smith frequently included reputation.)	(B1) Actor's Own: Social resources available for distributing. Includes: libertarian stuff; social capital; approbation; assistance; etc.	(C) Actor's Own: Estimations (esteem, valuations, regard, appreciation, etc.) of:
Government actor as a sort of Equal, not qua Superior	(A2) Other's Own: Libertarian stuff	(B2) Actor's Own: Social resources (as above in B1)	1. Objects external to his/her self 2. Objects internal to his/her self: one's own judgments, habits, sentiments, purposes, estimations, intentions, and interests.
A Superior	(A3) Inferior's Own: Libertarian stuff	(B3) Not applicable
An inferior	(A4) Not applicable	(B4) Actor's Own: Social resources (as above in B1)	EJ recursivity: The estimation of an object can be treated as another object of estimation.